The Burkina Faso Country Opinion Survey is part of the Country Opinion Survey Program series of the World Bank Group. This report was prepared by the Business Intelligence (BI) team, led by José De Buerba (Senior External Affairs Officer) and Svetlana Markova (Senior External Affairs Officer). Yulia Danilina, Jessica Cameron, Nan Lin, and Sofya Gubaydullina oversaw the design, reporting, and analysis of the survey results. Noreen Wambui and Irina Popova provided support for the data.

BI acknowledges the significant contribution from the Burkina Faso country team and independent field agency, Centre d'Analyse des Politiques Economiques et Sociales (CAPES). In particular, BI is grateful for the support from Pauline Zoure Kabore (Senior Operations Officer) and Lionel Yaro (External Affairs Officer) who coordinated the survey-related activities from Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso.

Objectives

This survey was designed to assist the World Bank Group (WBG) in gaining a better understanding of how stakeholders in Burkina Faso perceive the WBG. The survey explored the following questions:

- 1. Overall Context: How familiar are they with the WBG? How much do they trust the WBG?
- 2. Key Indicators: What opinion do key stakeholders have of the WBG regarding its effectiveness, relevance, alignment with Burkina Faso's development priorities, and other key indicators? Are opinions improving or declining?
- 3. Development Priorities: What areas of development are perceived to be the most important? Have the priorities changed over the past three years? How effective is the WBG perceived to be in these areas?
- 4. Engagement on the Ground: How is the WBG perceived as a development partner in Burkina Faso? Are opinions improving or declining?
- 5. Financial Instruments and Knowledge Work: What do key stakeholders value the most regarding the WBG's work in Burkina Faso? What opinion do key stakeholders have of WBG financial instruments and knowledge products? Are opinions improving or declining? What are stakeholders' suggestions for improving WBG's effectiveness?
- 6. Communication and Outreach: What are the preferred communication channels? Are there differences among stakeholder groups in terms of preferred channels?
- 7. Message Recall: What key topics that the WBG communicates do stakeholders recall? Is there a relationship between message recall and views of the WBG's work?

Methodology Overview

■ Fielded March – April 2024

- 504 potential participants were asked to complete a mostly quantitative survey
- Respondents completed the questionnaire online or received it via mail or courier and returned it accordingly
- List of names provided by the WBG country team and supplemented by the fielding agency
- Process managed on the ground by the fielding agency

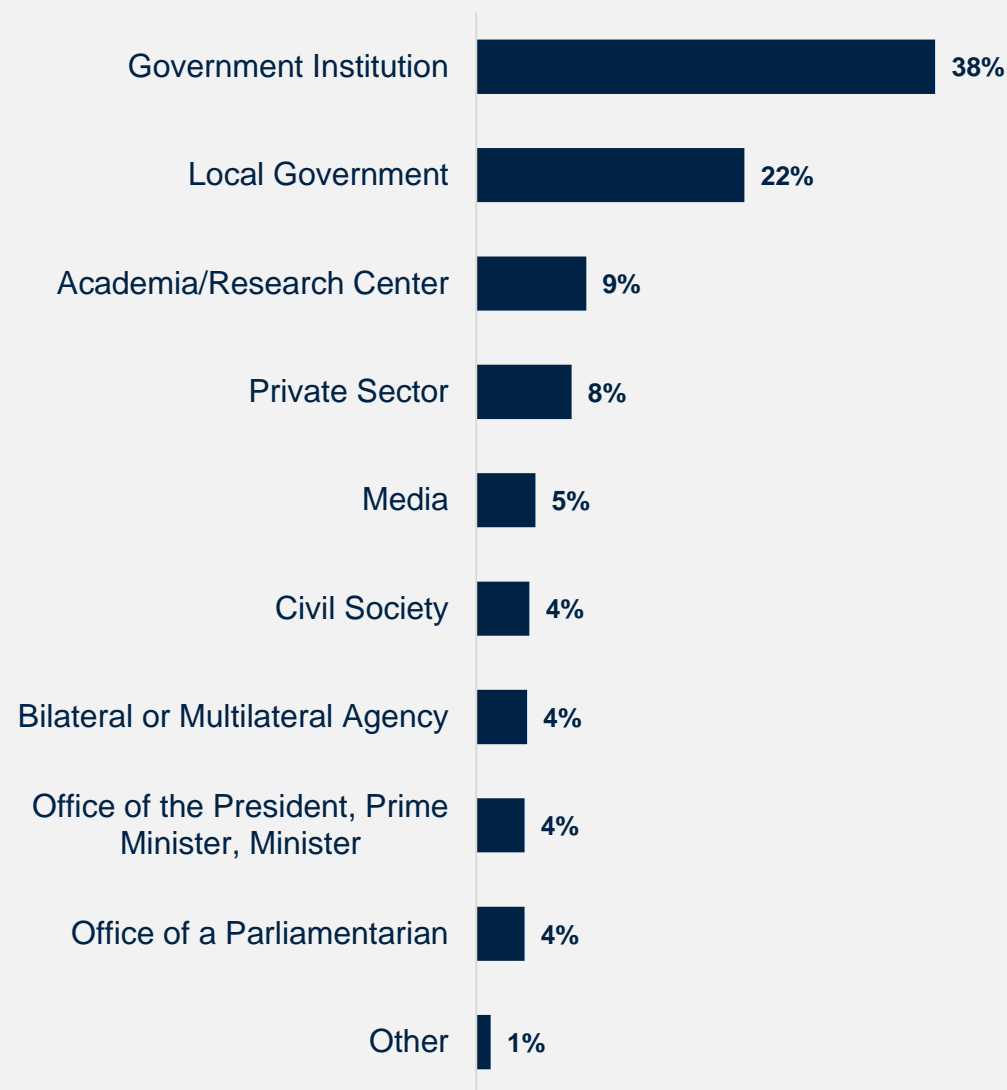

■ 407 participants (81% response rate)

- 49% from Ouagadougou city
- 39% currently collaborate with the WBG
- 24% Education specialists; 23% Public Governance specialists

■ Compared to FY19 Country Survey

- 263 participants (52% response rate)
- 87% from Ouagadougou city
- 49% collaborated with the WBG

Overall Context

“Analyze the national priorities defined by the country. Position the country's priorities in line with the World Bank's comparative advantages through dialogue with the country. Consider the positioning of the country's other partners to ensure synergy of action or complementarity. Take into account those left behind.”

(Bilateral or Multilateral Respondent)

“Sincerely help the country emerge from this situation, which is hampering its development. First of all, by lobbying other financial institutions to lift the financial sanctions against the country; building schools, maternity wards, roads, sanitation; supporting farmers and livestock breeders; investing in dams; creating jobs for young people; granting micro-credits; supporting local authorities in local and institutional development; supporting development projects and programs and civil society; and, above all, support in the area of humanitarian aid – this will enable the transition to better focus on the objectives that will enable us to reclaim our territory.”

(Local Government Respondent)

WORLD BANK GROUP

In your opinion, what is the most important thing the WBG could do to increase its effectiveness in Burkina Faso? (N=329)

Consistent Familiarity with the World Bank

- Comparison of FY19 and FY24: Compared to respondents in the FY19 Survey, respondents in this year’s Country Survey reported significantly lower levels of familiarity with the World Bank :

Mean familiarity: FY24 = 5.0
 FY19 = 6.0

- Collaboration with the WBG: Respondents who indicated that they collaborate with the WBG reported significantly higher levels of familiarity with the institution’s work:

Mean familiarity: Collaborate with WBG = 6.9
 Do not collaborate = 3.8

Respondents who collaborated with the WBG in FY24 had statistically similar ratings of familiarity with the WBG compared to respondents who collaborated with the WBG in the FY19 Survey (mean = 7.0).

- Stakeholders: Respondents from bilateral or multilateral agencies indicated the highest levels of familiarity with the WBG, whereas respondents from the private sector and civil society reported much lower levels of familiarity with the WBG's work; however, this difference did not reach statistical significance.

Stakeholders Most Familiar with WAEMU and WBG

- Respondents in this year’s Country Survey were asked to indicate their familiarity with the work of several international organizations in addition to the World Bank Group. Of these organizations, respondents in Burkina Faso indicated the highest levels of familiarity with the work of the West Africa Economic and Monetary Union (WAEMU), followed by the WBG. Respondents were least familiar with the work of the IMF in Burkina Faso.

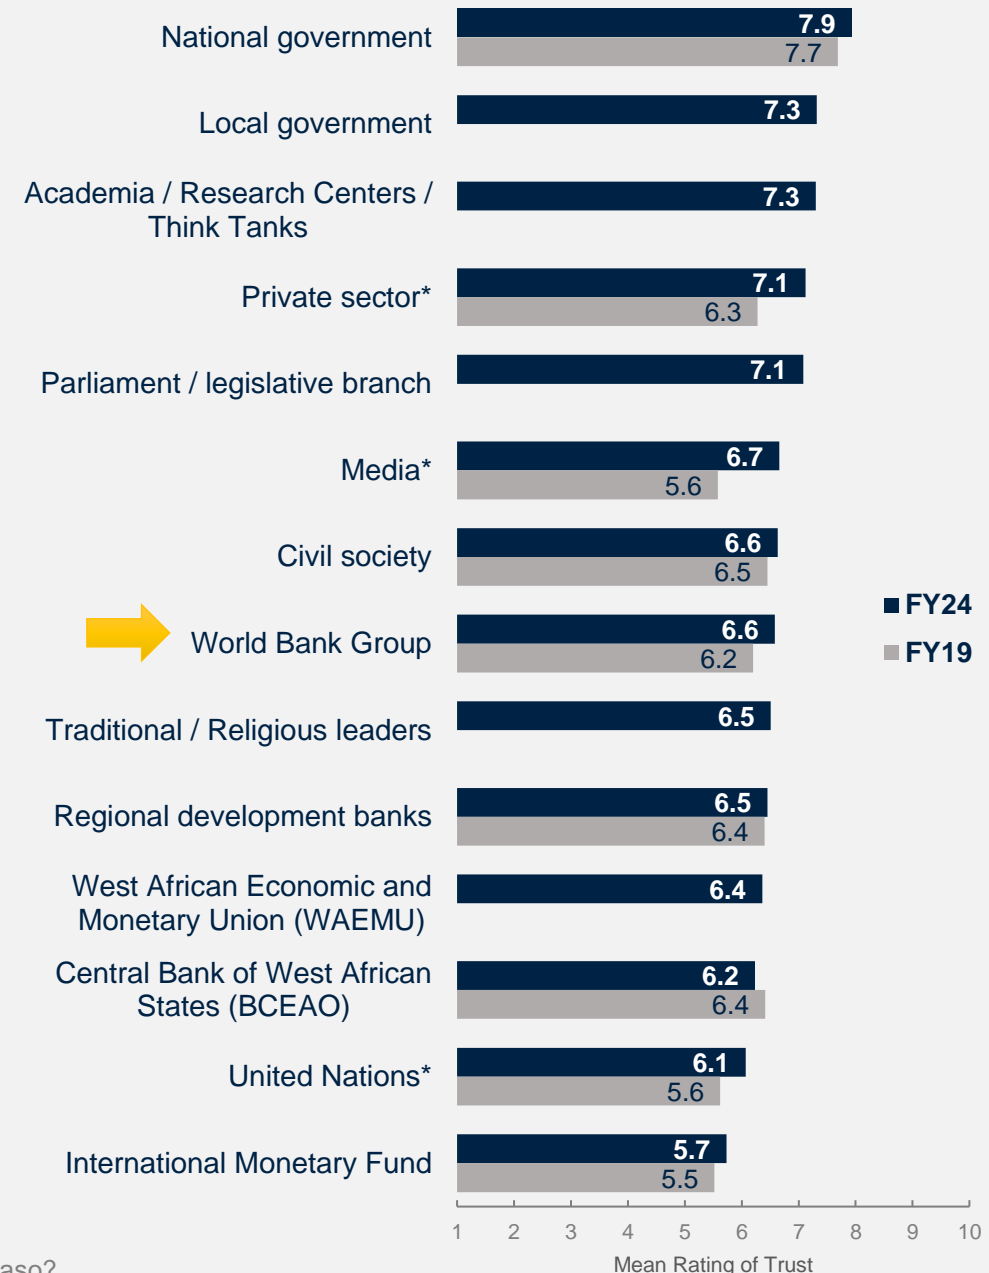

The WBG More Trusted than Other Multinational Institutions in Burkina Faso

Respondents in Burkina Faso gave the highest trust ratings for the National government, local government, academia, private sector, and Parliament. Of note, trust ratings in the private sector were significantly improved in FY24 compared to FY19, as were trust ratings in the media and the UN.

Multinational institutions other than the WBG, such as WAEMU, BCEAO, the UN, and IMF, were the least trusted institutions studied.

- Respondents who collaborated with the WBG in FY24 had significantly higher trust ratings in the WBG (mean = 7.6) compared to respondents who collaborated with the WBG in the FY19 Survey (mean = 6.8).

Overall Attitudes toward the World Bank Group

“The WBG must help Burkina Faso put an end to the insecurity it is suffering. This will give it greater credibility in the eyes of the Burkinabè people.” (Local Government Respondent)

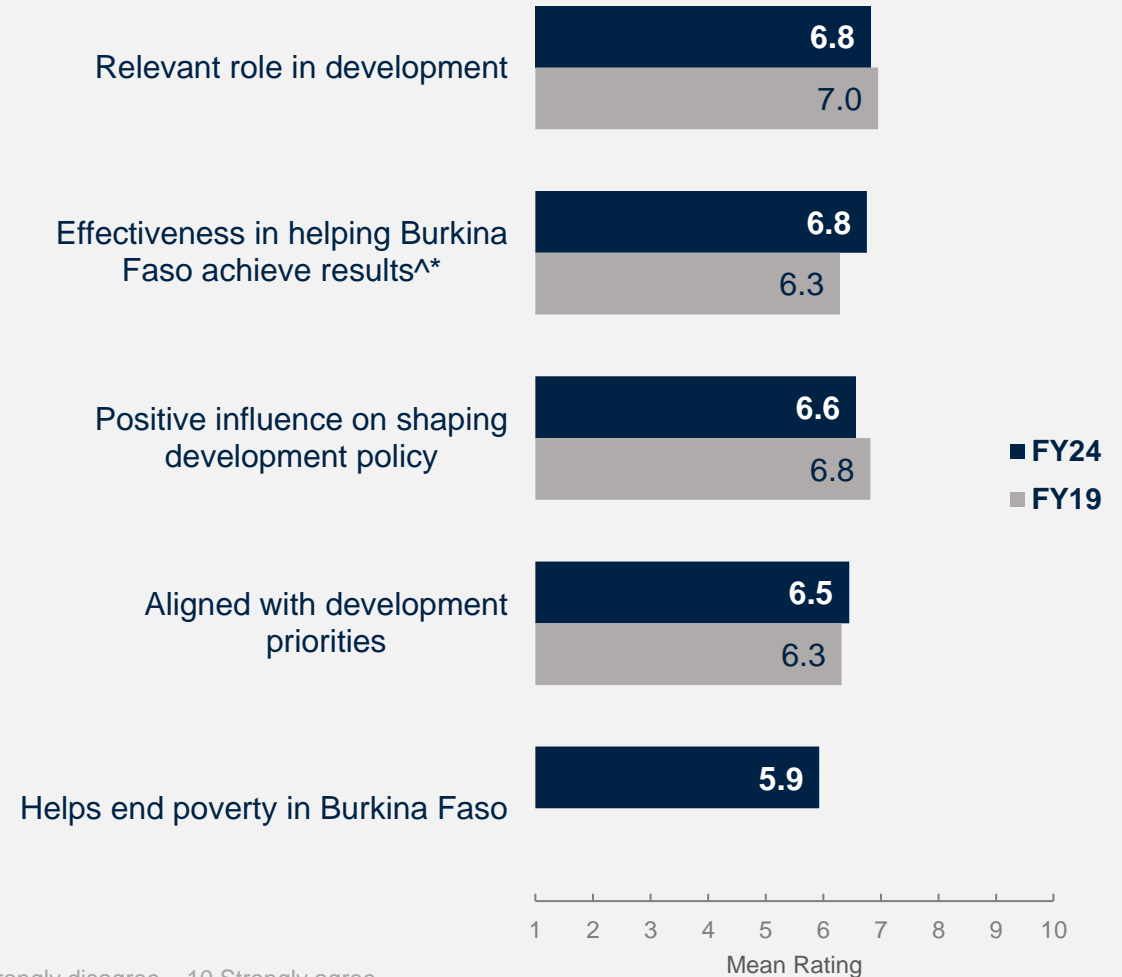

“The WBG should align itself more closely with government priorities and maximize its interventions (funding) in areas/sectors strongly correlated with growth by reducing the scattering of funding over several sectors at once.” (Government Institution Respondent)

Key Performance Indicators Remain Positive

In FY24, respondents gave positive ratings for the WBG's relevance to development in Burkina Faso, alignment with their development priorities for the country, its positive influence on shaping development policy, and the WBG's effectiveness in helping Burkina Faso to achieve development results, with effectiveness being significantly improved compared to the FY19 Survey.

- Respondents who collaborated with the WBG in FY24 had significantly higher ratings for the WBG's effectiveness in achieving results (mean = 7.4) compared to respondents who collaborated with the WBG in the FY19 Survey (mean = 6.9); however, ratings for the WBG's relevance, influence, and alignment were statistically similar across those who collaborated with the WBG in FY24 and FY19.

Scale: 1 To no degree at all – 10 To a very significant degree"

Bilateral/Multilateral Respondents Consistently Have More Positive Views of the WBG

Comparisons of ratings for key performance indicators between stakeholder groups show that respondents from bilateral or multilateral agencies tended to give the highest ratings for these key indicators of the WBG's performance. In contrast, respondents from academia and the media tended to give significantly lower ratings.

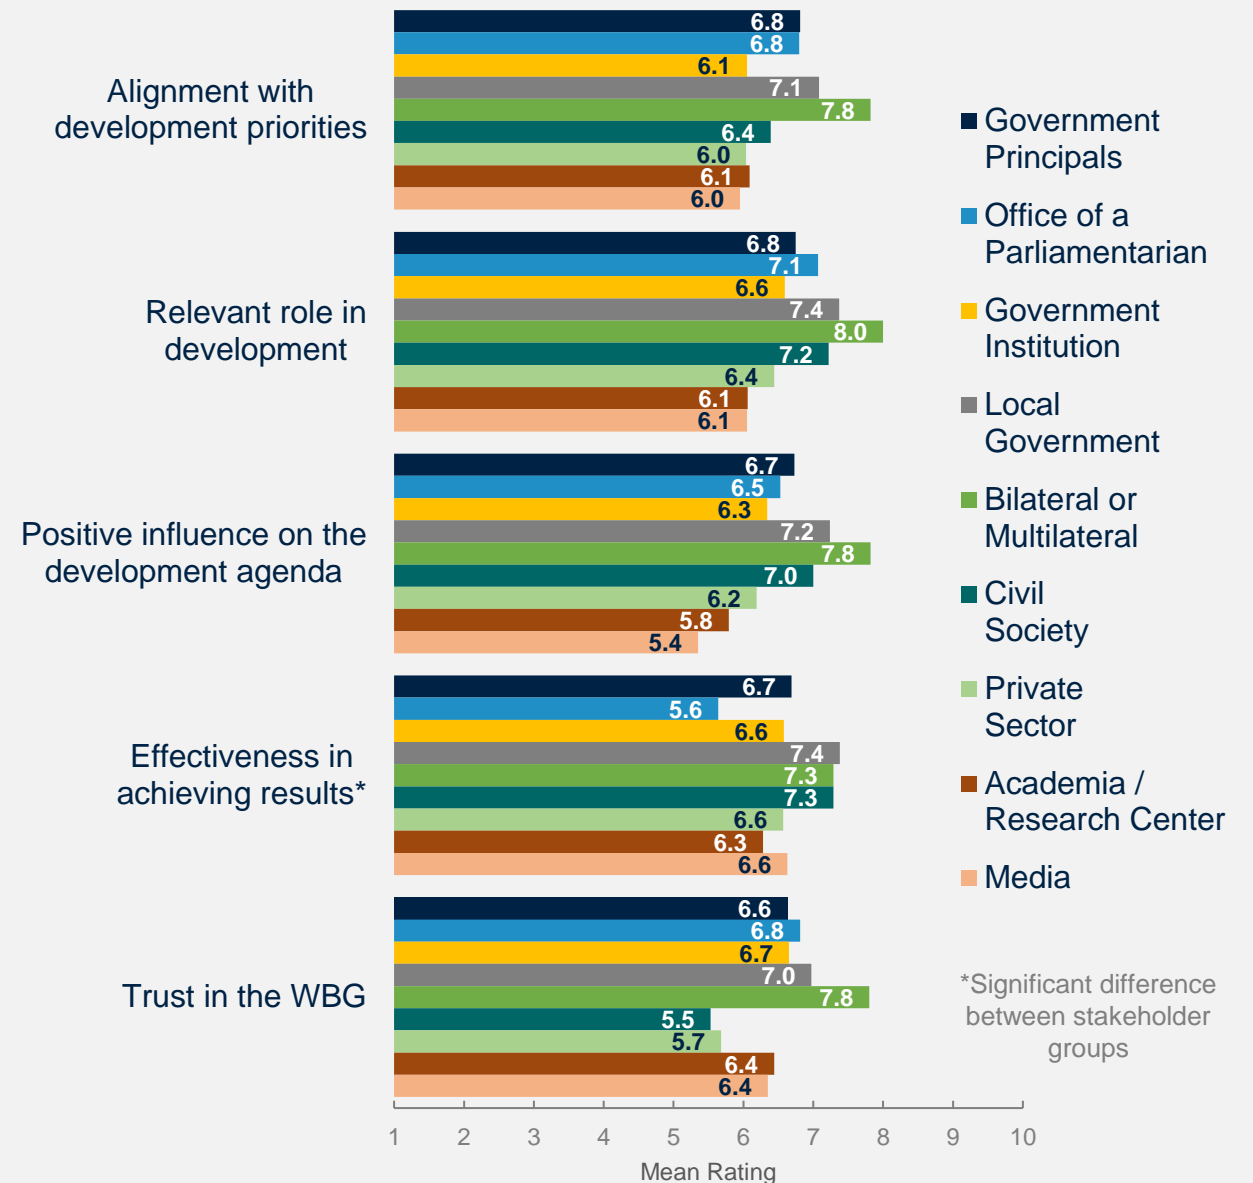

How much do you trust each of the following institutions to do what is right for Burkina Faso? Scale: 1 Not at all – 10 Very much

Familiarity Leads to More Positive Perceptions

Comparing ratings of key performance indicators among respondents highly familiar with the WBG (ratings of 8-10 on a 10-point scale) and those with little familiarity with the WBG (ratings of 1-4 on a 10-point scale), one can see that the more familiar stakeholders are with the WBG, the more positive perceptions they have of the WBG and its work.

Meaningful engagement and outreach can continue to increase positive perceptions.

How familiar are you with the work of the WBG in Burkina Faso?

■ High Familiarity (8-10) ■ Some Familiarity (5-7) ■ Low Familiarity (1-4)

Stakeholder Trends across Performance Indicators

Respondents from bilateral or multilateral agencies had the highest mean rating across the aggregated responses to the eighteen COS indicator questions. In contrast, respondents from the private sector had significantly lower ratings.

- Collaboration with the WBG: Respondents who indicated that they collaborate with the WBG gave significantly higher ratings across the aggregated indicator questions compared to respondents who do not collaborate with the WBG:

Mean rating: Collaborate with WBG = 7.1
 Do not collaborate = 6.1

World Bank Group's Support for Development Areas

“Taking into consideration the priority needs of the people of Burkina Faso in development initiatives.”
(Government Principal Respondent)

“Listen to local populations to find out their priority needs and cross-reference them with government priorities before funding projects and programs.”
(Government Institution Respondent)

WORLD BANK GROUP

In your opinion, what is the most important thing the WBG could do to increase its effectiveness in Burkina Faso? (N=329)

Development Areas for WBG Focus

Addressing fragility, conflict, and violence was the top area where stakeholders would like the WBG to focus its resources in FY24. Education was the #2 priority in FY24. Transport infrastructure was of much greater priority in FY24, identified by four times as many respondents compared to FY19, becoming the #3 development priority in Burkina Faso.

Water/sanitation and climate change were also much greater priorities, identified as top priorities by more than five times as many respondents in FY24 as in FY19.

- Because 25% of this year's sample were specialists in the education sector, analyses were conducted to determine if they had undue influence on the results. Indeed, respondents who were education specialists were significantly more likely to say that education (74%), youth development (25%), and health (34%) were top priorities but significantly less likely to say that transport (34%) and climate change (11%) were priorities compared to respondents who did not specialize in the education sector (53%, 15%, 20%, 54%, and 22%, respectively).
- A similar analysis of the 23% of respondents who were specialists in public sector governance found that respondents who were governance specialists were significantly less likely to say that debt management (3%) was a priority compared to respondents who did not specialize in public sector governance (10%).

World Bank Group's Engagement on the Ground in Burkina Faso

"Like other technical and financial partners, the WBG in Burkina Faso needs to be more flexible, responsive, and consistent in supporting the country's ambitious, innovative, and autonomous development projects." (Bilateral or Multilateral Respondent)

"First and foremost, the group should assess the country's real needs to direct its funds towards its areas of activity and step up the monitoring of achievements in collaboration with local players." (Government Institution Respondent)

WORLD BANK GROUP

In your opinion, what is the most important thing the WBG could do to increase its effectiveness in Burkina Faso? (N=329)

The WBG Increasingly Seen as a Flexible, Responsive Partner

In FY24, respondents perceived the WBG significantly more as flexible and responsive than in FY19 but significantly less as a long-term partner to Burkina Faso.

- Of note, respondents from government principals and bilateral or multilateral agencies had significantly higher ratings for the WBG’s responsiveness (means = 7.5 and 7.3, respectively) and accessibility (means = 6.8 and 7.4, respectively) than respondents from other stakeholder groups.

In your opinion, what is the most important thing the WBG could do to increase its effectiveness in Burkina Faso?

“Listen to the expectations of the public and the private sector and be more flexible.” (Parliamentarian Respondent)

“Support for training and implementation of activities must be inclusive (involving all stakeholders).” (Local Government Respondent)

“Support government policies, work with local players, make reports, notes, and studies accessible in local languages, do not impose a Western vision of development.” (Government Institution Respondent)

“Involve all stakeholders in the design and development of policies, followed by the implementation of actions.” (Civil Society Respondent)

The WBG Increasingly Seen as Effectively Collaborating with Stakeholders

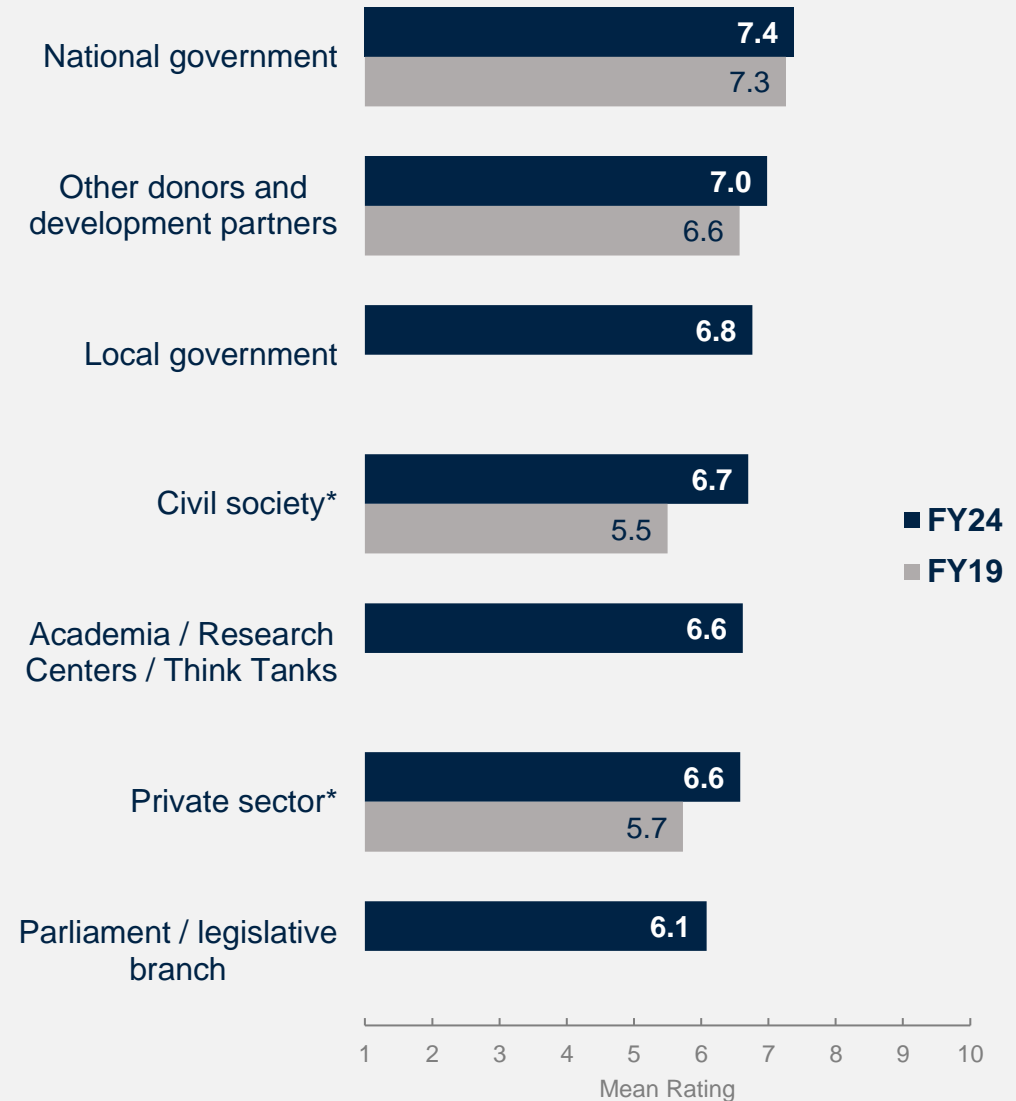

In FY24, respondents perceived the WBG as collaborating more with the National government and other donors and development partners, and significantly more with civil society and private sector compared to FY19.

- Of note, respondents from government principals, local government, and bilateral or multilateral agencies had significantly higher ratings for the WBG’s collaboration with the National government (means = 7.9, 7.9, and 8.1, respectively) compared to respondents from other stakeholder groups.

In your opinion, what is the most important thing the WBG could do to increase its effectiveness in Burkina Faso?

“Involve all stakeholders in the process, ensuring that the essential needs of key players are taken into account.”
(Government Institution Respondent)

“The WBG should: 1) Get closer to the beneficiary groups of its funding and programs to consider their concerns and measure the impacts of their interventions on the ground. 2) Use national expertise (studies, reflections, etc.). A great deal of work is carried out by universities, think tanks, national experts, and other consultants, but their work is not sufficiently promoted in the field.”
(Private Sector Respondent)

Stakeholders want the Bank to Collaborate More with Local Government

Most respondents in this year's survey indicated that, besides its partnership with the National government, the WBG should collaborate more with local government.

Top for local government (80%), government institutions (59%), and Parliamentarians (53%)

Top for government principals (60%), academia (82%), and media (65%)

Top for bilateral / multilateral agency (86%) and private sector (80%)

Top for civil society (94%)

High for bilateral / multilateral agency (36%)

Top for Parliament (53%)

In your opinion, what is the most important thing the WBG could do to increase its effectiveness in Burkina Faso?

“Move further away from central government, work more with local authorities, NGOs, private sector, decentralized structures.”

(Bilateral or Multilateral Respondent)

“The WBG must work with the central government but try to focus on local authorities and CSOs to better consider the concerns of local populations.”

(Private Sector Respondent)

Focus Area

"Strengthen development projects in regional and municipal communities; provide better support for the private sector to boost growth." (Local Government Respondent)

"Helping to combat terrorism; contribute to the employability of young people and women; finance projects to combat diseases and pandemics; invest in education, transport, entrepreneurship, water and sanitation; and local development."
(Local Government Respondent)

"For me, the WBG could do more in the following areas to increase its effectiveness in Burkina Faso: the agricultural sector by subsidizing products, equipment and creating processing plants; the job-seeking sector by creating vocational schools; the governance sector by making local government more accountable; the health sector by reducing the cost of pharmaceuticals, medical tests and examinations; and the security sector by helping to finance equipment for the armed forces." (Government Principal Respondent)

"Bridging the governance - safety and peace gap in Burkina-Faso."
(Bilateral or Multilateral Respondent)

Operational Effectiveness

"The WBG must respond in Burkina Faso to the country's expressed priority needs. Very often, these needs are set aside, and interventions are focused on areas previously defined by the WBG. This approach is ineffective." (Government Institution Respondent)

"Strengthen government structures and avoid setting up parallel project administrations. Diversify the portfolio and focus on structuring programs." (Government Institution Respondent)

"Be mindful of the many challenges facing Burkina Faso." (Parliamentarian Respondent)

"To increase its effectiveness, the WBG must develop participatory projects in tune with beneficiaries and stakeholders." (Government Principal Respondent)

"Strengthen monitoring of interventions and streamline procedures and requirements." (Academia Respondent)

Financial Support

"Increase its financing through: Budgetary support for the government following the withdrawal of other donors to stabilize the country; grants, subsidies, and loans (at competitive rates) to support vital sectors of the Burkinabè economy, such as infrastructure, energy, water, education, and agriculture; and continue to support vulnerable populations through projects such as the social safety nets." (Private Sector Respondent)

"Provide financial support to Burkina Faso according to its needs and ensure that the funds are put to good use." (Government Institution Respondent)

"Grant loans at low rates to finance large-scale infrastructure, notably national and departmental roads, large dams, development of large agropastoral production areas, and universities. The WBG must help strengthen democracy by financing decentralization in Burkina Faso. The WBG must avoid imposing its vision on Burkina Faso and must finance development projects and programs that are approved by the majority of Burkinabè." (Government Institution Respondent)

Communication

"Communicate more effectively on its actions and opportunities." (Private Sector Respondent)

"Increase the WBG's visibility for a better knowledge of the institution." (Civil Society Respondent)

Climate Change Communications can be More Impactful when Related to Stakeholders' Top Concerns: Food Insecurity

7 in 10 respondents were very concerned about decreased crop yields/increased food insecurity as potential impacts of climate change in Burkina Faso. Respondents also expressed great concern about more frequent and severe heatwaves, land, and forest degradation, and more frequent and severe droughts. These key areas of concern should be considered to make communications about climate change more impactful.

How concerned are you about the following potential impacts of climate change in Burkina Faso? (Percentage of Respondents, N=~382)

Message Recall Increases Familiarity and Leads to More Positive Perceptions of the WBG and its Work

These findings suggest that respondents who are more frequently exposed to information about the WBG, or who actively engage with WBG staff and knowledge work (read research papers, etc.) are also more likely to hold more positive views about the WBG's work.

Detailed Methodology

From March to April 2024, 504 stakeholders in Burkina Faso were invited to provide their opinions on the WBG’s work by participating in a Country Opinion Survey (COS). A list of potential participants was compiled by the WBG country team and the fielding agency. Participants were drawn from the Offices of the President, Prime Minister, Minister, and Parliament, government institutions, local governments, bilateral or multilateral agencies, the private sector, civil society, academia, and the media.

Of these stakeholders, 407 participated in the survey (81% response rate). Respondents completed the questionnaire via an online platform or received it via mail or courier and returned it accordingly.

The results of this year’s survey were compared to the FY19 Survey, which had a response rate of 52% (N=263).

Comparing responses across Country Surveys reflects changes in attitudes over time, but also changes in respondent samples, changes in methodology, and changes to the survey instrument itself. To reduce the influence of the latter factor, only those questions with similar response scales/options were analyzed. This year’s survey saw a different distribution of respondents across stakeholder groups with greater outreach to and/or response from local governments and government institutions but decreased civil society and the private sector. These differences in stakeholder composition between the two years should be considered when interpreting the results of the past-year comparison analyses.

Key statistically significant findings (tested at the research standard of $p < .05$) are noted throughout the report.

Breakdowns for individual questions by stakeholder group can be found in the “Burkina Faso COS FY24 Appendices with data breakdowns.xlsx” file published in the WBG Microdata Library, along with the survey microdata and this report.
